Save As or press Ctrl+S. After you finish and save your image, the image opens in Photoshop as a new file. The file location will show in the Photoshop window on the left side.

You can create new files or open existing files in this location. 5.

Anyone know how I can control and stop the new Windows 7 watermark? - srameshc I have a macbook and after installing Windows 7 on my laptop, I find some of the working condition is not good. In the picture I have to press the fn+F5 button before the screen will work normally; and the sound doesn't work even if I change the volume to maximum (actually the volume works only if I connect my earphones though).

Anyone know how I can change the options and control the privacy settings in Windows? Thanks!

===== yuvadam You can't. By the way, if the sound does work and you only can adjust the volume, simply volume up and down. Or, swap out the Apple keyboard for a Logitech one. The new keyboard is a bit annoying. ----- srameshc looks like the new Windows 7 watermark is not new and is in the image too. /*

Current weather Gannett has offered to pay $17.5 million in bonuses to about 4,100 of its employees. The deal is being announced Thursday morning, according to an internal memo obtained by The Associated Press. The memo said the merger with the Emmis radio and TV group would be completed when the companies' boards of directors have approved the merger. Thomas H. Lee Grassley said he welcomed the introduction of a bipartisan "president's commission" to review intelligence programs. "I can't specifically comment on whether or not we will initiate the creation of this commission, but I think it's an essential step,” the senator from Iowa told reporters Wednesday in San Diego. “I think that any kind of commission needs to be bipartisan in nature and also needs to involve civil society, that it needs to have experts in it so that we can try to sort of see where we can get the greatest good for the most people.” Grassley also said he plans to be in New York to testify to the congressional Joint Select Committee on Deficit Reduction, a panel set up in the summer of last year to look at ways to cut the U.S. deficit. Albert Kremer, owner of the Howard Johnson Plaza Hotel in Columbia, recently announced plans to open a new hotel next door to the Holiday Inn. The historic Columbia Hotel, which has been closed since the 1980s, will reopen in July as the Courtyard by Marriott Hotel. “It will have no public access,” Kremer said of the Courtyard. The approximately 20,000 square-foot, three-story inn will have 124 rooms, some of which will be larger and have kitchens, he said. The Courtyard will be the first Courtyard by Marriott hotel in South Carolina. The U.S. chain, owned by Marriott International Inc., opened its 1,500th hotel in Washington, D.C., in 2005. In the last year, the state has continued to add jobs at a steady rate. Employment at The State newspaper increased by 6.2 percent, or about 450 jobs, in the last year. The Wall Street Journal is the main business section at The State. The

Charleston Post and Courier, which is owned by Dow Jones & Co., saw its employment increase by 5 percent, or about 290 jobs
